01 Introduction

Opus Form Ltd (Company No. 17228356) is committed to preventing modern slavery and human trafficking in our corporate activities, and to ensuring that our supply chains are free from these practices.

While Opus Form Ltd currently has an annual turnover below the £36 million threshold requiring a mandatory statement under section 54 of the Modern Slavery Act 2015, we are making this voluntary statement to demonstrate our commitment to best practices and ethical operations.

02 Organisational Structure and Supply Chains

We provide concrete flooring and associated construction services, including the provision of labour, materials, and plant machinery for industrial flooring projects across the United Kingdom.

Our supply chains include the sourcing of raw materials (such as concrete and steel reinforcement), plant and machinery hire, and the use of specialised sub-contractors and labour agencies. We recognise that the construction industry carries a higher inherent risk of modern slavery and illegal working, and we are committed to mitigating this risk.

03 Policies on Modern Slavery and Illegal Working

We operate a zero-tolerance approach to modern slavery, human trafficking, and illegal working. We are committed to acting ethically and with integrity in all our business dealings and relationships.

- Right to Work Verification: We strictly verify the identity and right to work of all our direct employees and contractors before they commence work with us.
- Internal Safeguards: Our internal workforce management portal includes features to rigorously track and verify our own operatives' right to work, ensuring that no undocumented or exploited labour can access our sites.

04 Due Diligence Processes

As part of our initiative to identify and mitigate risk, we:

- Evaluate the modern slavery risks of any new major suppliers.
- Expect our suppliers to have suitable anti-slavery and human trafficking policies and processes.
- Reserve the right to terminate our relationship with suppliers if instances of modern slavery come to light.

05 Reporting and Raising Concerns

We encourage all our employees, contractors, and partners to report any concerns regarding modern slavery or illegal working within our business or supply chain. Concerns should be raised directly to management via: admin@opusform.co.uk.

06 Ongoing Review

We will periodically review and update this statement to reflect our ongoing commitment and any changes in our business operations or legal obligations.
